RECITALS

WHEREAS, CVE is the owner of lands and premises commonly known as the “Fairgrounds” located entirely within the City; and

WHEREAS, CVE has historically hosted concerts, shows, and exhibitions at the Fairgrounds at various times during each year, including the annual Champlain Valley Fair; and

WHEREAS, CVE and the City recognize the mutual contributions and interdependence, both tangible and intangible, each share with the other, for the benefit of the community at large, and

WHEREAS, CVE has offered to make an annual cash donation to the City, in addition to the many ongoing indirect and in-kind contributions it makes in the ordinary course of its business; and

WHEREAS, the City wishes to accept CVE’s offer of a cash donation and to continue working closely with CVE to develop and promote public understanding of the many contributions CVE makes to the community.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, and of the mutual undertakings contained herein, CVE and the City agree as follows:

Regardless of whether CVE actually collects such a surcharge, however, it remains obligated to make its annual donation to the City as provided herein.

4. Other fees and charges. This Agreement shall not affect the terms of any other agreement between CVE and the City with respect to payments made or to be made by CVE to the City, nor shall it affect in any way the authority of the City to enforce its existing ordinances and regulations as they may relate to activities at the Fairgrounds. However, during the term of this Agreement, the City shall not adopt or impose any new additional fees or charges specific to CVE activities at the Fairgrounds.

6. Annual Fair. The Champlain Valley Fair is currently presented by CVE for a ten-day period each year. The City has no objection if CVE decides to extend the Fair for an eleventh day after all applicable permits have been obtained.

7. Termination. In the event CVE fails to make its annual donation to the City as provided herein, or in the event the City fails to honor or perform any of the promises and obligations undertaken herein, the non-breaching party may terminate this Agreement upon forty-five (45) days written notice to the breaching party, specifying such failure or violation, and this Agreement shall be terminated, unless the breaching party cures the failure or violation specified in such notice within such forty-five (45) days.
